

Book Club Discussion Guide

Thank you for choosing Round Ireland with a Duck for your book club. Here are some conversation starters:

🍀 In Round Ireland with a Duck, the author embarks on a soulful solo journey that weaves together legacy, empowerment, and trust. Which of these themes speak most to you in your own life?

🍀 Along the way, the author meets (and lives with!) a wide range of strangers. How do you feel about meeting strangers when you travel? Have they taught you anything memorable?

🍀 The book blends fast-paced adventure with moments of quiet reflection and humor. How did this mix help the author tell a complicated story? How do you like to share your stories?

🍀 The author's journey was at a unique time in her life — and in the world. Did the story inspire you to reflect on your own life stage or future opportunities? Any new ideas?

If you loved Round Ireland with a Duck, please consider leaving a review, sharing it with a friend, or recommending it to other book clubs. As always, trust the journey.
